ATTO Technology to Support Connectivity for the New Apple Mac Pro

ATTO hardware and software will also fully support new Mac Studio and macOS Sonoma

Amherst, NY (June 6, 2023) – ATTO Technology, Inc., celebrating 35 years as a global leader of network, storage connectivity and infrastructure solutions for data-intensive computing environments, announced its hardware and software will fully support the new Apple Mac Pro®, Mac Studio® and macOS® Sonoma.

When the new Mac Pro ships, all applicable ATTO adapters, software, and utilities will have been tested to verify compatibility and subjected to performance evaluations to ensure they operate at the highest level with the M2 Ultra Mac Pro. ATTO will also support Thunderbolt™ connectivity on the new Mac Studio and, upon its release, macOS Sonoma.

“We’ve been the leading provider of high-performance storage and network connectivity for the Mac since the early days of the digital media revolution,” said Timothy J. Klein, president and CEO, ATTO Technology. “Our amazing engineers work closely with Apple to ensure we’re always ready to go when Apple is.”

ATTO Technology is a network and storage connectivity manufacturer whose products power high-performance, demanding workflows for media and entertainment, government, education, and scientific users. From Thunderbolt™ to Ethernet, Fibre Channel to NVMe and SAS/SATA, ATTO products are the highest-performing, most reliable and easiest-to-use connectivity solutions available for Mac environments.

Digital assets continue to evolve in complexity, size and number which pushes connectivity requirements to the limits. Apple is the platform of choice for creative professionals with demanding design and digital production workflows where team collaboration is often essential. Apple Macs are also popular in science and education where data density and complexity typify most workflows today. ATTO Technology supplies the connectivity made specifically to address the challenges of growing data access across networks and in high-performance workflows.
